

Position Available: Construction Observer/Technician

Central Ohio Engineering Firm looking for an experience construction observer for municipal construction projects. Duties will include construction administration/observation for waterline construction, wastewater treatment plants, water treatment plants and facilities. Qualified candidates must have experience with construction administration and/or observation of municipal projects, possess basic computer knowledge in Word, Excel and Outlook, and be a good communicator. Travel throughout Ohio will be required on a daily basis. EOE. Email your resume, references and salary requirements to jemerick@ggceng.com. Resumes' will be held in strict confidence.

Posted 08/23/11